

November 2026 Prayer Topics

Sunday, November 1: NIGERIA

Mary David, 4, was badly injured when militants attacked her Christian community in central Nigeria on May 10. After being struck in the face with a machete, she has lost the vision in one eye. Her five-year-old brother was also injured. Mary is one of thousands of Christians killed and injured every year in terror attacks in central Nigeria.// We pray for healing for Mary and for all victims of terror attacks in Nigeria .

Sunday, November 8: PAKISTAN

Samuel (name changed), from a poor Christian family, was just 16 when he converted to Islam under pressure from work colleagues. He is now living in an Islamic school and is estranged from his family. // We pray for Samuel and his family, and for all Christians under pressure to convert to Islam in Pakistan.

Sunday, November 15: MYANMAR

Dal Thawn Tuang, a Baptist pastor in Chin State, was shot and killed by the military on September 14. Rev. Tuang is the third pastor to be killed in the state in recent months amid an upsurge in attacks on Christians. The 49-year-old leaves behind a wife and two children. // We pray for Rev. Tuang's family and congregants, and for the safety of Ch ristians in Myanmar.

Sunday, November 22: SYRIA

Suleiman Khalil, the former mayor of the Christian town of Sadad, has been detained by the new Syrian government without charge for 21 months. Khalil is regarded as a hero for defending the town from Islamic State in 2015. His daughter says she was prevented from giving her jailed father a Bible.// We pray for release for Suleiman, and for the threatened Christian minority in Syria.

Sunday, November 29: INDIA

Gangi was trafficked from rural India in 2023 aged 14 and forced into domestic service. After six months, rescuers managed to locate her and reunite her with her family. She has now finished school and is training as a seamstress. In India, members of religious minorities and girls from poor backgrounds, like Gangi, are particularly vulnerable to human traffickers.// We give thanks for Gangi's freedom, and pray for all victims of human trafficking in India.
